Vos Glass, Inc. Celebrates 30 Years of Growth and Vision

Grand Rapids, Michigan (February 20, 2012) – Vos Glass, Inc. is welcoming 2012 by celebrating thirty years of growth and vision as one of the most respected companies in the glass industry. Founded in 1982, Vos Glass, Inc. brings highly skilled experts and high quality glazing materials to every project, offering customers the best solutions through creativity, energy and dedication.

“We’re proud of the innovation, exploration and out-of-the-box thinking that have enabled us to achieve our position as the market leader in West Michigan,” said Linda J. Vos-Graham, Vos Glass, Inc. president. “During the past three decades we’ve transformed our residential business, created an automotive department that is second to none, and have made our mark with glazing on numerous landmark buildings throughout the area. As we focus on the future, we’re grateful for the many opportunities and successful projects, large and small, that have been part of our journey.”

Major commercial projects by Vos Glass, Inc. include Helen DeVos Children’s Hospital, Grand Rapids Civic Theater, the Grand Rapids Convention Center, Steelcase Learning Center, the Van Andel Institute, and Lacks Cancer Center.

Community involvement is an important commitment at Vos Glass, Inc., an active supporter of ArtPrize and numerous other arts initiatives in the area. The company has been an active member of the Associated Builders and Contractors of West Michigan (ABCWM) for 30 years. “The people at Vos have built a strong reputation for quality, service and reliability, and the company plays a significant role in the contracting industry on a regional and state level,” said John Doherty, president and CEO, ABCWM.
